

The health and well being of people in the Nelson Bays region continues to improve Piki Te Ora – Be Well for all people

Strategic Objectives

Strategic Targets

Know and understand the Nelson Bays communities.

1

Reduce inequalities in population health.

2

Promote community and individual ownership of health and well-being.

3

Ensure the provision of sustainable quality primary health care services.

4

Ensure a robust and sustainable organisation to meet the Strategic Objectives.

5

A Build and strengthen collaborative relationships.

B Gather sound quantitative and qualitative information about communities and their needs.

C Undertake analysis and interpretation to inform planning and service provision.

D Share knowledge.

A Improve and promote access to primary health care services.

B Ensure programmes and services address local Maori health inequalities.

C Ensure programmes and services address population health inequalities.

A Adopt community development principles within NBPH.

B Target and facilitate community leadership.

C Further improve community links.

D Ensure that health information is accessible and understandable.

A Ensure collaborative relationships with key stakeholders.

B Enable the delivery of "better, sooner, more convenient" health services.

C Develop the primary health care community workforce.

D Encourage innovative initiatives within the primary health care community.

A Best practice governance.

B Fiscally responsible.

C Legislatively compliant.

D Meets good employer obligations.